PROGRAM ELIGIBILITY

CU Upward Bound serves high school students from income eligible families; and high school students from families in which neither parent holds a bachelor's degree. The goal of Upward Bound is to increase the rate at which participants complete secondary education and enroll in and graduate from institutions of postsecondary education.

Students must have completed the 8th grade, be between the ages of 13 & 19, and have a need for academic support in order to pursue a program of postsecondary education. All students must be either income eligible or be potential first-generation college students.

On a yearly basis, UB will serve 150 income eligible and/or first generation high school students who have a need for academic support to successfully complete high school, enter postsecondary school and earn a baccalaureate degree. The CU Upward Bound Program targets schools from the southern West Virginia counties of Greenbrier, McDowell, Mercer, Monroe, & Summers.

UPWARD BOUND PROGRAM SERVICES

CU Upward Bound Program students will be involved in activities associated with their educational plans that emphasize a positive, active, & encouraging a learning environment which will help to increase student self-confidence, self-esteem, motivation to achieve, & academic performance. All services provided by the CU Upward Bound Program are FREE, and students can earn MONEY by participating in the program.
