SAT fee waivers are available to low-income 11th- and 12th-grade students in the U.S. or U.S. territories. You're eligible if one or more of these descriptions apply to you:

- You're enrolled in or eligible to participate in the federal National School Lunch Program (NSLP).
- Your family's annual income falls within the Income Eligibility Guidelines set by the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) Food and Nutrition Service.
- You're enrolled in a federal, state, or local program that aids students from low-income families (e.g., TRIO programs like Upward Bound).
- Your family receives public assistance.
- You're unhoused or reside in federally subsidized public housing or a foster home.
- You're a ward of the state or an orphan.

Congrats!!!!

Hayley Scaggs has been accepted to Concord.
