

WHO WE ARE...

The Concord University Veterans Upward Bound (CUVUB) Program is a FREE, TRiO program, federally funded by the U.S. Department of Education. The primary goal of CUVUB is to assist, support, and prepare eligible veterans to enter and be successful and graduate from college.

CU Veterans Upward Bound is designed to motivate and assist veterans in the development of academic and other requisite skills necessary for acceptance and success in a program of postsecondary education. The program provides assessment and enhancement of basic skills through counseling, mentoring, tutoring, and academic instruction in the core subject areas.

CU Veterans Upward Bound is dedicated to helping Veterans of the U.S. Military take full advantage of the educational opportunities available to them. CUVUB provides services and materials (at no cost to the program participants) for the purpose of facilitating enrollment into and successful completion of studies at institutions of higher learning.

CU VETERANS UPWARD BOUND SERVICES

Concord University Veterans Upward Bound can help prepare you for success through higher education, help you secure all the financial aid you deserve, simplify and streamline the means to admissions and enrollment, help you understand how to make use of your GI Benefits, and provide you with timesaving links to other Veterans' Agencies. All services are provided at no cost to the participants.

Peer Tutoring & Mentoring

CU Veterans Upward Bound offers peer tutoring and mentoring, to help ensure that veterans succeed in their pursuit of a higher education.

GED & College Entrance Prep

CU Veterans Upward Bound helps with basic skills development to ensure veterans successfully complete a high school equivalency program and gain admission to college education programs.

Individualized Classes

CU Veterans Upward Bound offers individualized classes with rolling admission dates. These short-term refresher classes are for high school graduates that have put off pursuing a college education.

Earn Stipends

CU Veterans Upward Bound participants may earn stipends for satisfactory program participation and attendance.

Advising

CU Veterans Upward Bound offers academic advising and assistance, as well as career counseling and personalized counseling.

Veterans' Services Referrals

CU Veterans Upward Bound helps assist in getting veterans the services they need from other available resources.

Financial Aid & College Awareness

CU Veterans Upward Bound is dedicated to assisting you with applications to the college or university of your choice and applying for financial aid. CUVUB also gives exposure to cultural events, academic programs, and other educational activities not usually available.

PROGRAM ELIGIBILITY

If you concluded your service in the Armed Forces in good standing; and either you receive a modest income and/or neither of your parents attained a bachelors' degree; and you have the desire to improve your life through higher education, you are eligible to receive the benefits of Concord University Veterans Upward Bound.

Concord University Veterans Upward Bound is 100% funded by a grant from the U.S. Department of Education. Project services are free to eligible veterans.

Concord University Veterans Upward Bound is an Equal Opportunity in Education project, and therefore does not discriminate on the basis of age, gender, sexual orientation, religion, race, or disability.
